

Unpacking & Embracing the Early Years Learning Framework

Is your Early Years Learning Framework (EYLF) in the too hard or unsure basket?

Then this is the session for you. Aimed at all staff, from directors to trainees, this session will unpack ~~Belonging, being and becoming~~ Look beyond the thought of ~~just another framework~~ to embrace the ideology behind the framework, of learning through play, social and emotional well being and children as constructors of their own learning. The session will break down the outcomes and discuss the implications on our practice and how this framework is already in practice in many early education programs. Bring along a copy of EYLF and be prepared for debate and discussion!
